

English:

Beegu by Alexi Deacon: lost poster, diary entry, story.

Lost and Found by Oliver Jeffers: letter of advice, penguin poem, non-chronological report about penguins.

Phonics:

We will revisit the graphemes and phonemes that we have already learnt to secure our understanding.

Guided Reading:

We will explore a range of texts, including Alfie Gets in First by Shirley Hughes, Avocado Baby by John Burningham, Six Dinner Sid by Inga Moore, Cyril and Pat by Emily Gravett, The Pea and the Princess by Mini Grey and Billy and the Beast by Nadia Shireen.

Topic:

Researching Robert Scott and Felicity Aspen and comparing their journeys.

Using locational and directional language to describe the location of features and routes.

Creating polar pop-up cards using sliders and levers.

Maths:

Counting in twos, fives and tens.

Multiplication and division- equal groups and arrays.

Fractions.

Position and direction.

PSHE: My Emotions

Naming our feelings and understanding how different situations make us feel, saying how our feelings and actions affect others and learning ways to calm down, being assertive.

Summer Term 1 2023
Year 1
Explorers

RE:

Why is Shabbat important to Jewish children?

Music: Pitch

Recognising high and low sounds, experimenting with sounds and instruments.

Computing:

Using a mouse and keyboard.

Whole School Events:

1.5.23 and 8.5.23 Bank Holiday

Week beginning 15.5.23- Healthy Lifestyles and Mental Health Awareness Week.

16.5.23 – Year 1 Tennis Festival at Chesterton.

16.5.23- Open classrooms.

PE (Monday/ Friday):

Gym – rocking and rolling / weather dance.

Games – rolling, receiving and striking / outdoor adventurous activities.